We understand Foodies come in all ages.

We also understand that behind every young foodie is a family to support your interests. As community oriented Business Owners it is important for us to hire mature and responsible young Foodies who have the support of their family to not only work for us but respect the work contract between their young Foodie and Jammin Crepes.

Please sign below along with your parent(s)/guardian that you acknowledge that the contract for employment includes:

- 1) A minimum of TWO 5 to 7 hour shifts that can include weeknights (till 10 pm) and weekends
- 2) Conversations about employment matters are solely between your child and Jammin Crepes. Any concerns, comments or complaints about employment are to be addressed to Jammin Crepes by the employee (your child) in accordance with this application.
